MRS. W. A. HUDGENS, Editor, Phone 37.

A pretty compliment to the bride-elect of next week, Miss Sara Giles, was the shower given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. P. K. McCully at her home on West Whitner street. Each guest brought a kitchen towel, and the time was pleasantly spent hemming these towels for the bride's kitchen. Mrs. Frank Farmer finished hers first, and was given a lovely cuff and collar, which she presented to Miss Giles. Assisting Mrs. McCully were Mrs. Clarence Prevost, Mrs. Ed. Atkinson and Miss Kate Russell. An elegant salad course was served during the afternoon. The guests were all cousins and included Mesdames B. O. Evans, Charlie Gambrell, Frank Farmer, Anna Weston, Ira Giles, Carrie Patrick, George Speer, Andrew Speer, Tom Speer, Joe M. Evans, A. G. Fretwell, Carrie McCully, J. C. Marshall, Emmie Cathcart, Clarence Prevost, Misses Sara Giles, Katharine Stelling, Ellie McCully, Kate Russell, Louise Humphreys.

Miss Virginia Gilmer was the charming little hostess for a dozen friends on Thursday evening, the occasion being her 14th birthday. They were invited out to supper, and afterwards all went to the picture show.

Those who enjoyed this delightful occasion were: Misses Clarice Townsend, Lydia McCully, Ann Gambrell, Evelyn Brown, Carol Cox, Thelma Osborne, Marjorie Guest, Mabel Dillingham, Virginia and Frances Marshall.

The Junior Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Raymond Fretwell on West Franklin street.

The October meeting of the Palmetto chapter was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Humbert. In the absence of the president the first vice president, Miss Mab Bonham, presided, and the principal business was the election of the delegates for the general and State convention. Those elected to the general convention in Savannah were: Miss Eubank Taylor and Miss Mab Bonham, with Miss Bessie Major and Mrs. Dave Beatty as alternates. To the State convention in Yorkville Miss Eubank Taylor and Mrs. William Muldrow were elected as delegates with Miss Kathleen Morryce and Mrs. Ed. Marshall as alternates. The chair presented in behalf of Mr. Burnett, the claims of the new theatre management.

The program for the afternoon was as follows: piano solo, Miss Gene Harris; a paper on the second battle of the war, the first battle of Mississippi, by Miss Annie Cooley; solo, Miss Kathleen Morryce; Miss Edna Major, the chapter historian, read a beautiful written paper, full of interesting information. The South Carolina Generals in the War. This paper was written by a local veteran. The attractive hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dave Beatty and Miss Edna Majors, served an elegant salad course during the social half hour.

On Tuesday evening from 6 to 8, Miss Eunice Evans was the pretty young hostess for about 25 of her friends when she entertained at her handsome home on McDuffie street. It was the 12th birthday of the little hostess and the occasion was a very pleasant and happy one for the young folks. An attractive pink and white color scheme was daintily carried out and after many merry games the young hostess, assisted by Misses Sara Evans and Sara Mattison, served a delightful sweet course.

One of the charming affairs in connection with the Giles-McCully wedding of next week was the elegant course dinner at which Mrs. Bert McCully entertained a few of his friends on Friday evening at his suburban home just west of the city. Road dallies were used in beautiful profusion all through the house, especially on the dining table, and the place cards were bolts of cotton, tied with ribbon. The guests, who included, ed the old West End club, of which the host was one of the best loved members, presented him with a miniature bale of cotton, bearing his initials on one side and the bride's on the other side. When opened it contained a beautiful assortment of rocks brought by his friends. After the last course was served an old time "experience meeting" was held and the happy incidents of their early boyhood days, furnished pleasant and merry reminiscence. Those present were: Messrs. Clarence Prevost, Max Crayton, Blair Crayton, Keys McCally, Will Harrison, Rhett Parker, Harry Orr, R. E. Ligon, George McConnell, George Hammett, A. S. Farmer, Charlie Gambrell, Bond Anderson and Joel Keys.

Catochee chapter, D. A. R., will meet on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. J. R. Vandiver, at her home "Runnymede."

A number of Miss Esther Lancaster's friends gave her a pleasant little surprise party on Friday evening at her home on River street. It was a delightful informal affair and was fully enjoyed by all present. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening and the hostess was assisted by Misses Nellie Finley and Ruth Wells, and Mr. Glenn Lassiter.

The others present were: Misses Nellie Finley, Elizabeth Robinson, Ethel Nelson, Alberta Farmer, Lois and Ruth Wells, Willie Carn and Jessie Hember, Dr. Forest Suggs, Messrs. Jule Earle, Elbert Bailey, Ralph Reed, Sloan Stephens, Harvie Todd, Glenn Lassiter, Ed. Valentine, Herman Bailey.

A few of Miss Carrie Fretwell's friends gathered informally Friday evening to help her celebrate her birthday and a delightfully pleasant evening was spent. They presented Miss Fretwell with many beautiful flowers.

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary society of St. John's Methodist church will be held Monday afternoon, October 26, at 4 o'clock with Misses Irene and Clara Osborne at "Arlington."

Miss Grace Clayton of Easley is visiting Mrs. C. P. Glenn on Pant street.

Miss Kate Russell who has been the guest of Mrs. Clarence Prevost and other friends here for several weeks, left yesterday for her home at Russell.

The music pupils of Miss Charlotte Parks, North Anderson, gave a recital last Thursday afternoon in which the little folks played very acceptably, showing marked improvement since beginning their lessons. Among the numbers were piano solos by Misses Lucile Speer, Dorothy Prevost and Sylvene Elrod, and Masters Mason Speer and Francis Prevost. There were also songs by Francis and Dorothy Prevost, Helen Harden and Sylvene Elrod, Mason Speer and Miss Parks. Lucile Speer and Miss Parks. After the playing refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Andrew Speer, Clarence Prevost, Sylvester Elrod, Samuel Harden and Misses Helen Burris, Kate Russell, Elizabeth Barget and Carolina Bell.

A pretty entertainment on the week's social calendar was the linen shower given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Florence Thompson in honor of Miss Sara Giles, whose wedding next week in Mr. Bert McCully will be an important social event. Mrs. Thompson's beautiful new home on south McDuffie street is ideally fitted for entertaining, as the whole front of the house can be thrown together and on Saturday afternoon it was particularly bright with beautiful vases of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Charles Sullivan received the guests at the door, conducting them to the receiving line where Mrs. Thompson received her guests with the honoree, Miss Giles, Miss Katharine Stelling and Mrs. Iva Giles. During the afternoon the guests were given an interesting little contest to fill out styled "An Automobile Romance." So many tied for the prize, a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums that Mrs. Irving Brownlee stood upon the first landing of the stairs and threw it up, it being caught by her sister, Miss Bonnie Orr, a charming visitor from Charlotte, N. C. Mrs. John Sullivan and Mrs. William King invited the guests into the dining room where Misses Edna Thompson and Edith Hubbard served an elegant salad course under the supervision of Mrs. Clara Earle and Miss Cecilia von Hasseln. About 40 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Bolin Allen of Lowndesville announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida, to Mr. Russell S. Garner, the wedding to take place in November. Miss Allen has often visited here as the guest of her aunts, Misses Ida and Lois Watson, and her many friends will be interested in this announcement.

Mrs. J. W. Morrah of Mt. Carmel is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Calhoun Harris.

Miss Bonnie Orr of Charlotte, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irving Brownlee.

Miss Stella Caughman has gone to her home at Lykesland near Columbia, and there she will be married on Wednesday to Mr. John Burns of Pendleton. It will be a quiet home affair and Miss Orpha Harris of Pendleton will go down on Monday to be present at the wedding. Miss Caughman is a graduate nurse of the Anderson hospital and since her graduation several years ago has located in Anderson. They will make their home on Mr. Burns' farm near Pendleton.

Among the out of town guests who will be here for the Giles-McCully wedding on Thursday will be: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Giles and children of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Giles of New York, Mrs. W. A. Templeton, W. G. Templeton, Mrs. Lucy Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barksdale of Abbeville, Mr. W. A. Giles and Miss Lullie Giles of Graniteville, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Giles.

Mrs. E. M. Rucker returned to Columbia last night, after a visit of several days in the city.

The home of Mrs. Frances E. McPhail at Pendleton was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Tuesday evening when her daughter, Marie, and Mr. Thad Williamson of Belton were married by the Rev. Charles M. Peter, pastor of the Methodist church. The ceremony was performed on the beautiful lawn beneath the stately trees, a fit setting for the pretty bridal party that gathered there. To the strains of the wedding march by Miss Ida McCrary the bridal party took their stand beneath the boughs of oaks, bright with clusters of electric lights. Miss Pearl Garvin with Mr. Gilliard Hunter, Miss Louise Hunter with Mr. James Terry, Miss Sallie Hunter with Mr. Harold Williamson, Miss Vera McPhail with Mr. Ralph Hunter. The maid of honor was Miss Annie McPhail in a lovely gown of pink with pink carnations. The two little flower girls, Augusta Simpson and Edith Martin, wore dainty white dresses and carried baskets of carnations. The bride came out on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Eugene Sifton, and met the groom with his best man, Mr. Basil Williamson. The bride wore a beautiful creation of white satin and carried an armful of white roses and lilies of the valley. Immediately after the ceremony several hundred guests were entertained at an elegant reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left for an extended wedding trip north.

The many friends of Will McCauley are deeply interested in the recital he will give in the Anderson college auditorium next Friday evening. This is Mr. McCauley's first public appearance in Anderson. For many years he made his home here with Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Crayton, later going to Germany where he studied for five years, therefore, Anderson people feel a deep personal interest in him and his work, and are looking forward to hearing him on Friday evening.

On account of the show in town on Tuesday, Monday afternoon will be observed as card afternoon at the Rose Hill club. Charming arrangements have been made for the afternoon. The lady members will go out as usual and play cards during the afternoon and at 6 o'clock the gentlemen will come out for supper. Later dancing and cards will be enjoyed for the rest of the evening. The Rose Hill club has never been more attractive than just now when the trees are putting on their fall suits, all making a picture of gorgeous coloring.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill are expected home today after a two weeks trip north.

Mrs. Harry Cunningham of Greenville is visiting Mrs. Sallie Cunningham.

Miss Jessie Browne visited friends in Pendleton last week.

Mrs. George Alde of Italy who is spending some time in Anderson with relatives has gone to Heardmont to visit her brother, Mr. S. M. Orr.

Mr. Harry Cunningham of Greenville is spending today in town with relatives.

An Accident.
First office boy—Well, did you ask your boss for a raise right after his lunch, as I told you?
Second office boy—Yes; and I got fired. He'd forgot to take his dyspepsia tablet.

MUSIC FESTIVAL IS COMING IN FEBRUARY

ANDERSON'S BIG EVENT OF THE WINTER

VERY BEST MUSIC

Tentatively Agreed on Dates of February 22-23-24 for Biggest Attraction Ever Here.

It is highly probable that the dates of February 22, 23, 24 will be chosen for the Grand Winter Musical Festival which is to be held in Anderson this year under the auspices of the American Musical Institution. A letter was received in Anderson Saturday from George S. Waldo, president of the institute, in which he says that $500,000 worth of high class musical talent will be sent to Anderson for the three days.

It is understood that the musical festival to be held in Anderson will rank with the South Atlantic States music festival, held each year with Converse college in Spartanburg and with the other great musical attractions of the year in the South. It is believed that the artists coming here will be fully as good, if not better, than those secured for the other attractions in this part of the country. It is understood that the attractions coming here in February will visit no other towns in this immediate section of Anderson's population. Columbia, Charleston, Jacksonville and New Orleans are some of the cities booked for the appearance of this splendid musical company. Manager Bleich of the Anderson theatre has consented for those in charge of the approaching attraction to stage the affair in the handsome new play house and it is confidently expected that the large building will sold out and that "S. R. O." signs will be hung out for the first performance.

Plausible, Really.
"Why is a man's skull made in sections, instead of all in one piece?" asked Johnnie, who had just taken up physiology.
"So that it will stretch at the seams and not burst when he gets the swell head," answered father.—Judge.
